COM

BESH is a family restaurant, where we serve homemade vegetarian food, made with love. A cuisine that is simple and fast, made with wholesome, fresh ingredients, to the rhythm of flavors from the Great Silk Road.

Our mission is to inspire people to make healthier, greener, more compassionate choices towards nutritious, sustainable, ethical and plant-based food.

We use high-quality products that do not contain preservatives, artificial flavors or additives and create food that we are proud to serve.

A wooden cutting board holds several golden-brown, round falafel balls. They are garnished with fresh green basil leaves and finely chopped green herbs. To the left of the falafel are five bright red cherry tomatoes. In the background, two small wooden bowls contain white dipping sauces, one of which is topped with a drizzle of olive oil. Behind these are two glass bottles of oil, one light green and one darker, and two metal spice grinders. The entire scene is set on a light-colored wooden surface.

Our Cuisine

For more than 10 years we have been filling plates with healthy and wholesome goodness by providing professional vegetarian catering services. Starting from 2019, we provide our services in Berlin.

Our catering menu is accompanied by a delightful show, when our chef prepares the famous oriental pilaf in a huge kazan in front of the guests and serve, complementing it with delicious salad and crispy falafel.

Super good, super fresh. Would recommend getting a bit of everything. Reminds me of my Uzbek grandmother's cooking. I'll be back!
